For Immediate Release

ATTORNEYS FROM MARKOWITZ, DAVIS, RINGEL & TRUSTY, P.A.

Miami, FL – July 15, 2008 – Florida Trend magazine has released its annual Florida Legal Elite list for 2008, recognizing the top 1.8 percent of Florida's 56,000 lawyers. Markowitz, Davis, Ringel & Trusty, P.A. partners Jerry M. Markowitz, Joseph I. Davis, Jr., and Candis D. Trusty have been named lawyers considered by their peers to be among the top practitioners in Florida.

Jerry M. Markowitz, a resident of South Miami, is one of South Florida's leading business and bankruptcy reorganization law practitioners. He concentrates his practice in the areas of debtors and creditors rights, including workouts, bankruptcy, asset recovery, insolvency, receiverships, reorganizations, restructuring and mediation.

A frequent speaker and active community leader, Markowitz is Vice President for Alumni Activities of the University of Miami School of Law Alumni Association, a Director of the University of Miami Law School's Dean Circle, an Advisory Board Member and the Sponsorship Co-Chair of the American Bankruptcy Institute's '12th Annual Southeast Bankruptcy Workshop' and a former President of the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the Southern District of Florida. Additionally, Markowitz was the 2007 recipient of the 'Pro Bono Service Award' from the South Miami-Kendall Bar Association (SMKBA). Markowitz received a Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami School of Law and a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Florida.

Joseph I. Davis, Jr., a resident of Kendall, is a founding shareholder of the firm since it was established in 1980. He has practiced commercial law continuously in South Florida since 1973, has lectured on problem loans in Florida and has represented significant clients involved in all aspects of corporate, commercial and business transactions. His transactional, litigation and mediation practice is concentrated around financial institutions, commercial and real property lease transactions, real estate brokers and agents, title insurance companies, corporations, shareholder disputes, limited liability companies, limited liability partnerships, business acquisitions, receiverships and secured transactions.

Davis' legal affiliations include the Florida Bar Association, American Bar Association, Dade County Bar Association, United States Supreme Court, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh and Fifth Circuits. Additionally, Davis has received recognition from the "Put Something Back" Pro Bono Project of the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit for delivery of significant pro bono legal services.

Candis D. Trusty, a resident of downtown Miami, handles civil and commercial litigation, probate, guardianship and elder law. She frequently lectures on topics related to probate, guardianship and elder law before local business groups, professional organizations, civic groups, schools and corporations.

An active community leader, Trusty is also a lecturer for the "Put Something Back" Oversight Committee of the Florida Bar and a member of the Florida Bar Mentor Pilot Program. In June 2008, she received the 'Pro Bono Service Award' from the South Miami-Kendall Bar Association (SMKBA) for her dedicated pro bono efforts. She has been recognized with a Proclamation of Appreciation from Dade County's mayor for her pro bono services and she has
